BEASTS OF WAR
VISITOR WELCOME PACK

BOOTCAMP WEEKEND: INFINITY JUNE 2015

SO YOU'RE COMING TO SEE US!...

First things first, we'd like to say a huge thank you for signing up for one of our events, it's always a real pleasure for us to meetup with community members and we really hope you enjoy the time you spend here!

HAVE YOU PACKED?

1) DICE & TAPE MEASURE:

Some events we don't supply these so it's always good to bring your own!

2) ID:

Chances are you will need this for your travels, so don't forget it.

3) WARM CLOTHES & RAIN COAT:

Yeah it's cold and wet here, nothing we can do about that!

4) MEDICATION:

If you're on any, remember to bring it as we're not sharing ours!

THINGS TO REMEMBER / KNOW

1) MONEY & CURRENCY

We spend GBP (Sterling) here in Northern Ireland, the banks here print their own money (that will put a puzzled look on your face when you get change!), but everywhere accepts Bank of England notes.

But…

Just look at the puzzled look on a shop assistant's face back on mainland UK if you try to spend one of our notes (yes they are legal tender!)

So best to try and change your leftover notes back into Bank of England notes!

MAKE A TRIP OF IT...

Did you know that Beasts of War is based on the doorstep of one of the world's areas of outstanding awesomeness (there is an official term for it, but I think you get the idea!)

If you want to stay and explore, then be sure to consider the following points of interest...

THE GIANT'S CAUSEWAY - Described by local comedian Tim McGarry as God's attempt at a patio, The Giant's Causeway is one of the most famous locations in the whole of Ireland. Some people believe the basalt columns were formed by a volcanic eruption, but the locals all know they were made by the giant Finn MacCool in his attempt to build a bridge to Scotland.

MUSSENDEN TEMPLE - A short drive from the Beasts of War studios in Coleraine, Mussenden Temple is a small, circular building perched on the edge of the cliffs near Castelrock. The temple overlooks Downhill Beach, which featured as Dragonstone in Game of Thrones where the idols of the Seven were burned.

THE DARK HEDGES - The Dark Hedges are a stretch of beech trees found just outside the nearby town of Ballymoney. They were planted in the eighteenth century and have become one N. Ireland's most famous images, and can be rather creepy when viewed at night. They too were featured in Game of Thrones as the King's Road.

BALLYCASTLE & RATHLIN ISLAND - About half an hour's drive from Coleraine is the seaside town of Ballycastle, famous for the Ould Lammas Fair every summer. Here visitors can see the dramatic cliff face of Fair Head (also featured in Game of Thrones) or the ruins of the 15th century Bonamargy Friary, complete with resident ghost.

Off the coast of Ballycastle is Rathlin Island, N. Ireland's only inhabited island and one time hidey hole of Robert the Bruce. This island has had a rather bloody history, being the site of the first Viking raid on Ireland and having played host to at least three massacres throughout the 16th and 17th centuries, one of which was partly perpetrated by Sir Francis Drake. Aside from its history, Rathlin is home to all manner of wildlife and these days is mostly visited during the spring when people can see seals and a breeding colony of puffins.

MAKE A TRIP OF IT...

BUSHMILLS WHISKEY DISTILLERY - Bushmills Whiskey is world famous with anyone who enjoys a good drink and isn't that fussed about remaining vertical. Visitors can take part in daily walking tours through the 400 year old distillery and watch the whiskey being made, after which they can pick up a bottle of the special 12 year-old Distillery Reserve Single Malt.
March opening times are from 09:15 - 16:45

PORTRUSH - The nearby coastal town of Portrush is home to excellent beaches and golf courses. It is a hot spot for local surfers and there are shops in town where boards can be rented. Portrush is also home to Barry's, a small funfair complete with some decent roller coasters.

DUNLUCE CASTLE - The medieval ruins of Dunluce Castle can be found on the coastal road between Portrush and Portballintrae. Built upon the site of an even older Irish fort, the castle served as the seat for the MacDonnell Clan and the Earl of Antrim. Famously, the castle's kitchens fell into the sea after a particularly terrible storm. Local legend has it that only a kitchen boy survived, as he had been sitting in a far corner of the kitchen at the time.

CARRICK A REDE ROPE BRIDGE - Initially built by salmon fishermen in order to get to Carrick A Rede island, this 66ft long rope bridge, hanging 98ft above the rocks, is now mainly a tourist attraction. Located near Ballintoy (itself now made famous as its harbour became the Iron Islands' Lordsport Harbour in Game of Thrones), many people come here all year round to cross the bridge and admire the views, as you can see all the way to Fair Head and even to Scotland. Although no one has fallen from the bridge in recent years, boats do occasionally have to pick up people who refuse to cross the bridge again after making it to the island
